

Our Suits For Men, Young Men And Boys

Balance what you pay against what you get—that is a safe rule to apply to our suits for men and boys.

The fabrics are the products of the best mills. The models are the best work of high grade designers. The styles conform to proper usage and yet differ from others in many minor touches of "dash," which add to their attractiveness. These garments represent our idea of the most that money can buy in good clothes. Call and see the kind of garments we offer.

Also in furnishings for men and boys, we show, as always, the finest money can buy. Trunks and Suit Cases. A large stock to select from.

CRUCES BOUNDARIES ARE REESTABLISHED

President Taft Issues Order Fixing the Lincoln Land District Again.

Las Cruces, N. M., Oct. 28.—After receiving the executive order of August 4, president Taft has issued another executive order which reestablishes the boundaries of the Lincoln land district in the territory of New Mexico, placing the Mesquero reservation in the jurisdiction of the Roosevelt land office instead of that at Las Cruces. The order is as follows:

Beginning on the boundary line between the state of Texas and the territory of New Mexico, where the first standard parallel south intersects the same; thence west along said parallel to the range line between ranges 15 and 16 east; thence north along said range line, allowing for proper offsets on the base line, to the township line between townships 2 and 3 north; thence west along said township line to the range line between ranges 8 and 9 east; thence south along said range line, allowing for proper offsets on the base line and the first standard parallel south; thence east along said standard parallel south; thence east along said standard parallel south to the range line between ranges 11 and 12 east; thence south along said standard parallel south to the boundary line of the Mesquero Apache Indian reservation; thence south, east and south, following the boundary line of said Indian reservation, to the southwest corner thereof; thence east, along the south boundary of said Indian reservation, to the range line between ranges 11 and 12 east; thence south along said range line to the third standard parallel south; thence east along said standard parallel to the range line between ranges 13 and 14 east; thence south along the range line between ranges 13 and 14 east, allowing for the proper offsets on the fourth and fifth standard parallels south, to the boundary line between the state of Texas and the territory of New Mexico; thence east along said boundary line to the southeast corner of the territory of New Mexico;

thence north along the boundary line between the state of Texas and the territory of New Mexico to the place of beginning.

The reestablishment of the boundaries above indicated will take effect on November 1, 1910.

FOUR TRACTS OF LAND ARE SOLD AT LA UNION

Many Acquire Water Rights on the Ditch, Delicate Have Gone to Pueblo, Upper Valley News.

La Union, N. M., Sept. 28.—During the past week four large tracts of land have been sold and water rights acquired on many acres of new lands in La Union ditch. This ditch is now being cleaned and enlarged to insure sufficient water supply for the many new farms being put under cultivation. The ditch is now the largest on the west side of the river.

L. H. Brandt has ordered a fine new carriage.

M. G. Elghemey, secretary and treasurer of La Union Community Ditch company, and Humboldt Casad, commissioner of the same, were appointed delegates to the National Irrigation congress, representing this section. They left on the special train for Pueblo, Colorado.

Miss Helen Longmeyer, who recently returned from Mount St. Vincent-on-the-Hudson, New York, is spending a few days with El Paso friends.

LAST ARREST IS MADE IN LEASBURG TIMBER CASES.

Delegate Moves to Santa Fe to Attend Convention; Brand Inspector Looks Over Horse's Personals.

Las Cruces, N. M., Sept. 28.—Francisco Flores was arrested yesterday at his home near Dona Ana by deputy marshal Bloom, charged with cutting and taking away timber from reserved land at the Leasburg dam. This makes the last arrest for which warrants have been issued in this connection. Probate clerk Isidore Armijo and family left yesterday for Albuquerque, where they will visit for a few days and then go to Santa Fe, where they will make their home during the session of the constitutional convention, to which Mr. Armijo is one of the delegates from this county.

A nine pound daughter arrived yesterday at the home of Dr. and Mrs. R. E. McBride.

The Ladies of the Macabees held their regular meeting yesterday afternoon.

J. S. A. Martin, of Socorro, brand inspector for the 8th district, was in Las Cruces yesterday on official business connected with the shipment of a car load of horses.

Mrs. Henrietta Bloom, formerly of El Paso, who was arrested here about six weeks ago on a charge of keeping a disorderly house, and who was fined $50 and cost of court, was released yesterday. At her first trial she was sentenced to 60 days in jail in addition to the fine, but the jail sentence was suspended pending good behavior.

Complaint was made yesterday against her and the justice of the peace committed her to jail for the 60 days of the suspended sentence.

The district court docket for the October term shows 55 criminal cases, of which five are for murder. There are also 177 civil cases, making a heavy docket.

LAND AT LA TUNA IS NOW SELLING RAPIDLY

Flour Mill Is Operating Regularly; Much Alfalfa Is Shipped; Hunting Party Goes to Mountains.

La Tuna, Tex., Sept. 28.—Royal Jackman has sold five lots to C. E. Miller and Epimacio Pena, 20 lots in the Miller addition have been sold. William Geck of El Paso bought two.

M. Hintze of El Paso is running the flour mill this year, turning out 60 barrels daily. A storage space of 30 by 30 has been added to the mill warehouse. All bins and storage tanks are full and wheat is being refused on that account, the surplus going to the Globe mills, El Paso. The price has been 11 per bushel.

The Bailey & Wallace thresher is now working in this vicinity. They have shipped from here a carload of toll wheat to El Paso and are loading another. From their home rancher near Canutillo they shipped three carloads to the Globe mills.

Bran is selling for $1.50 f. o. b. La Tuna, carload lots. Hay $15.50 per ton. The Berino-Anthony Farmers' association has, up to date, shipped 300 carloads of alfalfa monthly to east Texas points and have rebilled 106 carloads for the Mesilla Valley association.

Tony Ferlat, Claude Thompson and John Steyer are an association committee agent the coming El Paso fair. A diploma and photographs of last year's exhibits are now decorating the walls of secretary Bowden's office at the new warehouse.

P. H. Bailey has gone on a two weeks' hunting trip in the Mogollons with Mr. Allen of El Paso and Roy and Jim Hogan, now of Clifton, Ariz.

LAS CRUCES ELKS PLAN TO HOLD A CARNIVAL

Efforts to Be Made to Raise Funds for the Purpose of Erecting New Home for the Order.

Las Cruces, N. M., Sept. 28.—Arrangements were completed yesterday by which the Las Cruces lodge of Elks will bring a carnival company here for a four-days' carnival, beginning October 24. The lodge expects to make a big start on its building fund. The lodge is making preliminary arrangements for the construction of a lodge home and club, and this is one of a series of entertainments which will be given for the purpose of obtaining the necessary money.

LA MESA FARMERS NOW PREPARING TO PLANT

Making Arrangements to Sow Seed for Fall Wheat Crop; Doves and Quail Plentiful in Upper Valley.

La Mesa, N. M., Sept. 28.—Farmers in this neighborhood are making preparations for the planting of their fall wheat crop. Quail will be plentiful in this vicinity this fall. Doves also are numerous.

TO LICENSE TRANSIENTS.

Las Cruces, N. M., Sept. 28.—A petition is being circulated among the residents of Las Cruces asking that the board of town trustees pass an ordinance placing a license upon all people doing a business of a transient nature, such as traveling shows, theatricals, photographers, bill distributors, etc. This license is asked for to protect the town merchants who are compelled at present to pay a merchants' tax. The petition contains the names of most of the taxpayers of this town and will no doubt be acted upon favorably by the trustees at their next meeting, on Monday evening, October 3.

Pabst Extract
The Best Tonic

combining the nutritive and tonic properties of rich barley malt and choicest hops, contains the very elements most needed to prepare for this trying time. Besides, its consistent use keeps the mother strong and robust during
